RE-REGISTRATION FOR IMPROVEMENT AND ER CASES

Urgent notice for B.Com (Hons) and B.A. (Hons) Economics students to re-register for grade improvements in internal assessments, continuous assessments, practical components, or Essential Repeat (ER) cases. Applicants must verify their eligibility under relevant Delhi University notifications, submit a separate Google Form for each individual subject, and clear examination dues through the official SRCC payment portal. The strict submission deadline is October 11, 2026, by 12:00 midnight.

SRCC B.COM (HONS.) FOURTH-YEAR ARC ALLOCATION LIST RELEASED

Shri Ram College of Commerce has officially released the final allocation list for Academic Research and Projects (ARC) for fourth-year B.Com (Hons.) students for the 2026-27 academic session. This comprehensive document outlines individual student names, roll numbers, selected research tracks: Dissertation or Academic Project along with designated faculty mentors and evaluation panel members across all 42 entries. Enrolled students must coordinate with their assigned supervisors promptly to commence their final-year research endeavors.

SRCC MMTTC CONTRACTUAL STAFF RECRUITMENT NOTICE

SRCC's Malaviya Mission Teachers Training Centre has invited applications for one contractual Multi-Tasking Support Staff position for an initial six-month period. Eligible candidates require a +2 qualification, basic computer skills, and good communication abilities, with accounts knowledge preferred. The position offers a consolidated monthly salary of Rs. 22,000. Interested applicants must submit their details via the official Google Form by October 21, 2026, and carry printed copies to the interview.

MANDATORY ATTENDANCE & MEDICAL LEAVE GUIDELINES

SRCC mandates a minimum of two-thirds attendance for internships, placements, ECA awards, scholarships, and fee concessions. However, student union or society office bearers require 75% attendance. Students must actively track their attendance on SmartProf. For medical leaves, students must submit Proforma P1 with blue-ink self-attested documents to the Admin Office within two working days of rejoining. Submitting fabricated documents invites strict disciplinary action. Extracurricular attendance benefits must be claimed via Proforma P2.

SRCC B.COM. (HONS.) FOURTH-YEAR EAC ALLOCATION LIST RELEASED

Shri Ram College of Commerce has released the 2026-27 Entrepreneurship and Corporate (EAC) final allocation list for fourth-year B.Com. (Hons.) students, pairing them with faculty mentors, internal committee members, and industry experts for project guidance and evaluation. Students should contact their supervisors promptly to begin research and meet final-year requirements and milestones on schedule.

WORLD MENTAL HEALTH DAY: YOURDOST WELLNESS WEBINAR

For World Mental Health Day 2026, SRCC emphasizes the theme "Lived Experiences Heard: Real Voices, Real Change" to encourage making mental well-being a daily priority. To support this, emotional wellness partner, YourDOST, is hosting a webinar titled "Beyond the Breaking Point" on October 15 at 4:00 PM. The session will help students identify stress triggers and learn regulation strategies. Additionally, students can seek confidential professional help anytime via the "SRCC Cares" link by signing up with their official SRCC email.

COLLEGE EVENTS

SAANJH - THE INAUGURATION EVENT OF THE CENTRE FOR HAPPINESS

On 8th October 2026, the Centre for Happiness (CFH) at Shri Ram College of Commerce hosted its inaugural event, SAANJH, at the Shridhar Shriram Auditorium. Drawing over 800 students, the programme promoted mindfulness, emotional well-being, and balance beyond academics through inspiring conversations and creative performances. The event opened with a traditional lamp-lighting ceremony. The event was graced by SRCC Principal Dr. Simrit Kaur, IAS officer Mr. Deepak Rawat, Healing Himalayas founder Mr. Pradeep Sangwan, and happiness coach Mr. Avinash Tiku, who were presented with saplings symbolizing sustainability and growth. Organised with the support of Ms. Shivangi, Ayush Agarwal, Bhawarth Jaiswal, and Aahan Tikoo, the inaugural session featured addresses on well-being and gratitude. Dr. Kaur encouraged students to seek inner contentment rather than measuring success through material achievements. Following the session, CFH President Ayush Agarwal and Angel received Letters of Appreciation for designing the CFH logo. Ayush delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the guests, administration, faculty, brands, and students. A social refreshment break followed, featuring snacks and drinks from Too Yumm!, BRB, Gladful, Sippee, Vyra, Chaayos, and SuperYou. The next segment featured an AI workshop by VC Gurukul, introducing students to practical applications of artificial intelligence. The Co-Op Area also hosted interactive stalls by Swish, VC Gurukul, and Svetambari, while Plum provided products for distribution among students and teachers. The event concluded with an energetic Open Mic session featuring Indian and Western music, Kathak, and Western dance. The vibrant celebration provided a fitting conclusion to SAANJH, reflecting inclusivity, creativity, emotional well-being, and community.

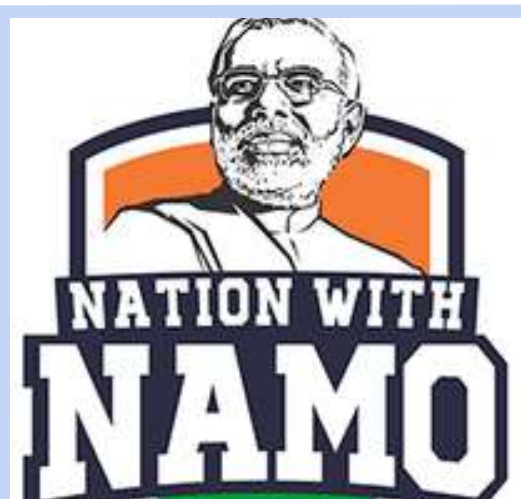

PRE INTERNSHIP TALK - NATION WITH NAMO

The session began with an introduction to the organisation's role in political consultancy. The representatives explained that the organisation provides strategic consulting services to political parties, including the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), focusing on election strategy and campaign planning. They also mentioned receiving consultation requests from other national and international political parties. The organisation was described as a not-for-profit entity that charges clients for the expenses incurred in delivering its services. The representatives emphasised their professional role in political consultancy rather than direct participation in politics.

COLLEGE EVENTS

During the interactive session, students raised questions about recruitment and workplace expectations. Addressing concerns about political affiliations influencing candidature, the executive clarified that candidates' political inclinations would not affect the selection process.

ADHYAY 3.0 UPSC SEMINAR CONDUCTED BY THE HISTORY & POLITICAL SCIENCE SOCIETY

On 9th October 2026, the History & Political Science Society successfully organised an insightful UPSC Seminar as part of Adhyay 3.0. The event aimed to demystify one of India's most competitive examinations by providing students with expert guidance and practical insights. The session featured Achal Anand (AIR 399, UPSC CSE 2024), who shared first-hand experiences, preparation strategies, and key learnings from his journey, and Arsh Singh Chauhan (UPSC Mentor & IIT Delhi alumnus), who provided strategic guidance and actionable insights for mastering the syllabus. A key highlight was the detailed analysis of UPSC toppers' answer sheets, with the speakers discussing ideal answer structures, presentation techniques, and common mistakes to avoid in the Mains examination.

The seminar witnessed enthusiastic participation from 60–70 students, including non-SRCC students. An engaging Q&A session addressed topics such as Prelims strategies, optional subject selection, and stress management. The event concluded with the felicitation of the speakers by Rishab Sir, Teacher-in-Charge, in appreciation of their time, guidance, and contribution to student mentorship.

FINANCIAL AWARENESS VISIT BY VITTSHALA - THE FINANCIAL LITERACY CELL OF SRCC

The Social Outreach Wing of Vittshala conducted a community outreach initiative at Rapid Cool, Mayapuri, New Delhi, reaching over 70 workers in the 30–40 age group. Led by Aditya Rathor and Anikeit Gupta under the joint banner of Project Asha & Project Umeed, the session aimed to promote practical financial literacy and informed decision-making.

The session focused on identifying digital scams and phishing attempts, maintaining secure online banking practices, and understanding basic insurance and risk coverage. These discussions helped participants develop greater financial awareness and build essential safety nets for themselves and their families.

The initiative was coordinated by PoC Khushi Singh, with appreciation extended to Yuvraj Jain, Kr. Satyam, Shubh, and the organising team for their dedication and contribution to the success of the drive.

NEWS AROUND THE WORLD

RUSSIAN MISSILE STRIKE KILLS 19 IN UKRAINE'S PRYLUKY

Russian forces fired six missiles at Pryluky in Chernihiv Oblast on 7 October, one hitting a five-storey apartment building and destroying two sections. The attack killed 19 people, including five children, and injured 55. Zelensky called it Putin's "birthday present" as he turned 74, while Russia claimed it targeted an industrial facility producing components for "Flamingo" missiles.

ITALY'S PARLIAMENT PASSES MELONI'S CONTROVERSIAL ELECTORAL REFORM LAW

Italy's Chamber of Deputies approved an electoral overhaul by 227 votes to 164, replacing the mixed electoral system with a fully proportional one. The law grants a seat bonus to parties or coalitions winning at least 42% of the vote and requires coalitions to name their prime ministerial candidate before elections. The center-left opposition calls the law unconstitutional.

EXPRESSION GAZETTE

Half a Century

Little penguin Binie padding on its feet,
Sees some dreams that don't let it sleep,
It continues to stretch its journey with the waddle,
Seeking the unknown just like it's waddle,

But all it sees is blue, all Binie feels is blue,
Bequest the general way, Binie turns around,
Taking a trip, to the one place it has no idea about,
Not to find stones, or to build a nest, not to dive in for swim, or a fish.

Off it goes and spring it sees, the doubts overpower, the oneness scratches,
The waddle named Binie 'The Digressed one', while quietly wishing or too scared to be one,

Languished Binie turns around looking to where it made, 'Half a century', it conquered,
Now Binie seems too dubious to continue for the other half,
But does it anyways,
because Binie believes that "We can be scared, but do it anyways".

Off Binie goes to fulfil its dreams, conquer the serenity, in a land unknown.
