FINANCE NEWS

Jio Platforms IPO Sees Record Demand

The Jio Platform IPO that was held for ₹30,213 crore saw overwhelming investor demand, getting more than 13 times the number of bids than the shares that were being offered by 23 October 2026. With the price of shares ranging from ₹1,065 to ₹1,119 each, the IPO would see the valuation of the digital service and telecom company at $108.3 billion. A sizeable amount of the funds raised would be used for repaying debt.

Rupee Rally Faces Challenges Amid Rising Oil Prices

The Indian Rupee's rise faces challenges from rising crude oil prices and sustained US dollar demand. After eight consecutive sessions of gains, it fell to ₹94.82 per dollar on 22 October 2026 as crude oil prices crossed $110 per barrel. Despite RBI intervention and expected foreign inflows from the Jio Platforms IPO, rising oil import costs and continued dollar demand will pressure the rupee, limiting its recovery in the near term.

October PMI rises to 56.7; Input cost inflation eased, manufacturing strong

India's private sector business activity continued growing in October, as manufacturing and services companies reported stronger output and new orders. Inflationary pressures eased, but job creation slowed to its weakest pace of 2026 so far. The HSBC Flash India Composite PMI Output Index rose to 56.7 in October from 55.9 in September, marking the fastest expansion since June. However, it remained below its 2026 average.
