NOTICE

As per Ordinance VII of the University of Delhi, all students are required to maintain a minimum of two-third attendance of total lectures, practicals tutorials & presentations to be eligible to appear in Examinations.

Failure to comply with this requirement may lead to disciplinary action by the college, including detention and disqualification from appearing in the Semester Examinations, in accordance with University rules.

All students are advised to monitor their attendance regularly and ensure they meet the minimum requirement to avoid any academic penalties.

In case of any discrepancy in the attendance record, students are advised to contact their respective teachers for necessary verification and correction.
